

fees and passes

ing fees are parks except a facilities

s are charged
uch as ice skat-
boat mooring,
ater rentals,
, and

Park Fun Tag
chased. Per-nd guests in oncommercial mittance to all state parks. The permit also provides for a reduction in designated camping fee.

Special Fun Tag

A free lifetime Special Fun Tag permit is available to Utah residents over 62 years of age, and to the permanently disabled. This Special Fun Tag allows the same privileges as the Fun Tag.

How to Determine Park Fees

Fees are subject to periodic change. Fee schedules are available at all state parks, region offices, and headquarters office.

A park for all seasons.
Wasatch Mountain State
Park overlooks beautiful Heber Valley.

R egulations

Fires

Campfires may be built in spfied areas. Most developed ca-sites provide camp stoves, fir-rings, or charcoal facilities. A undesignated campsites, checwith park ranger for areas in which ground fires are permi-Firewood is not generally ava-in state parks. Picnickers and campers should bring approp-fuel.

Pets

Pets are allowed in most Utah state parks. When permitted, should be confined or on a lea-not longer than six feet. Pets not permitted on beaches or i-lakes and streams. Seeing Eyes are the only animals admitted park buildings.

Pets are not permitted on beaches at Bear Lake Reser-Beach, Deer Creek State rk, Rockport State Park, or Jo-River Park jogging tr ad lawns at East Canyon Pa

As a courtesy to park visi-and safety measure, please keep pets under control.

Flora, Fauna

All plants, animals, minerals, other natural features in state parks are protected. It is unlawto remove, alter, destroy, or molest them.